

NIGERIAN MOTHER 'DIES' IN USA

A family in Nigeria was puzzled when the coffin of their dead mother arrived from the USA , sent by their sister.

The tiny corpse was so tightly squeezed inside the coffin that their mother's face was practically touching the glass cover. When they opened the coffin, they found a letter from their sister pinned to their mother's chest, which read:-

Dearest brodas and sistos, I am sending you our moda's remains for burial de in Legos . Sorry I couldn't come along as de expenses were so high. You will find inside de coffin, onda Mama's body, 12 cans of Libby's corn beef and 12 cans of Luncheon Meat. Just share it among yourselves.

On Mama's feet is a brand-new pair of Reeboks (size 8) for Junior. De are four pairs of Reeboks onder Mama's head for Tunde's sons. Mama is wearing six Ralph Lauren T-shirts - one is for Omo Roy and de rest are my nephews.

Mama is also wearing one dozen Wondo Bra (your favorite), just divide it among yourselves. De 2 dozen Victor ia's Secret panties dat Mama is wearing should be distributed among my nieces and cousins.

Underneat mama's body is 20 kgs of cocaine in satchets which is wort 120 million Naira. Dis should take care of all of you and de unborn babies in your bodies. Dont bury her wid all dis moni.

Mama is also wearing eight Docker pants - Ikeje, please get one for yourself and de rest are for de boys. De Swiss watch you asked for is on Mama's left wrist, please get it. Aunty Ifoma, Mama is wearing what you asked for ie ear rings, ring and necklace -please just get dem. Also, de six pairs of Chanel stockings dat Mama is wearing must be divided among the teen-age girls de. I hope dey like de color.

Your loving sister, Nene
