

Moses Murengu Mutuli

Born: 2nd April, 1977 in Huruma Estate, Nairobi – Lived here for 25 years

Chronicle:

1984 - 1991

Huruma Primary School

1992 - 1995

Eastleigh High School

- Completed in 1995 with grade B

1997 - 2001

University of Nairobi

- Graduated with a First Class in BSc (Mathematics)
- Won the prestigious Gold Medal award of the university for being the best overall student in the entire university in both academic and extra-curricula activities
- Won the Unilever Scholar of the Year award for being the best overall student in the Faculty of Science

- Won the Gandhi Smarak Nidhi Trustee Fund award for the best student in the Faculty of Science
- Won the Kenya-Re award for being the best student in Actuarial Mathematics (Dept. of Statistics)

2001 – 2003

Jubilee Insurance

- Worked as an actuarial assistant and sat examinations of the Institute of Actuaries of UK
- Actuaries are experts in assessing long-term financial risks for companies and their skills have traditionally been used in the fields of insurance and pensions, but are increasingly moving also in the field of banking

2003 – 2004

Oxford University

- While in Kenya, won the prestigious Rhodes Scholarship for a two year study at Oxford university
- The scholarship is awarded every year to two Kenyans (and 90 worldwide) who demonstrate high standard of intellectual and academic ability who show desire to truth, courage, devotion to duty and sympathy for and protection of the weak
- Among the previous world winners of the scholarship are former US president Bill Clinton, former Prime ministers of Australia and Jamaica and numerous vice chancellors and leading scholars around the world
- At Oxford obtained a MSc in Applied Statistics (2004) and MBA in Finance (2005)

2005 – 2007

Munich Re Life Company – London

- Worked as an actuarial assistant and progressed with exams of the Institute of Actuaries

2007 –

Deloitte & Touche London

- Consultant in their Actuarial and Insurance Solutions department
- Still progressing with actuarial exams of the Institute and hope to qualify next year.