

George Luchiri Wajackoyah

E-mail: g.wajackoyah@amheritageuniv.net

CLICK HERE to see more photos | Wajackoyah's recent visit to London

[Click here to read Wajackoyah's lecture at Baltimore University entitled:
Workers Rights In Global Economy: The Case of Bhopal](#)

EDUCATION

- 2006 BABRI George Washington Law School District of Columbia
- 2006 Master of Laws (U.S. Law) University of Baltimore
- 2002 L P C (2000-2001) University of Westminster
- 1999 Research towards MPhil/PhD (January –December) Warwick University
- 1998 Masters of Laws in Law in Development, University of Warwick
- 1997 Certificate in Comparative Laws/Master of Laws in Comparative Immigration & Nationality Laws), University of London (SOAS)
- 1996 Bachelor of Laws (Hons) University of Wolverhampton
- 1990 Diploma in French, University of Burundi
- 1989 Advanced Certificate in French, Kenya Institute of Administration

EMPLOYMENT

- 2007 Director of Legal Aid and Adjunct Professor of Law (Criminal Procedure, Immigration and Family Law), American Heritage University, California.
- 2006 Legal Associate, Law offices of Bill Kiefer, California
- 2005 Consultant: Bethel World Immigration Services (Baltimore)
Legal Research Associate Ubom Law Group (Washington D.C)
- 2002 Wajackoyah & Company Immigration Practice, UK
- 2001 Consultant at Akin-Samuels Immigration Services , UK
- 2000 Lecturer London Tower College: Immigration, Constitution and Public Law
- 1992 Part time Tutor, Filton College, Bristol, UK
- 1990 Office of the President Kenya
- 1983 High School Teacher

HONORS & AWARDS

- 2001 Elevated to Level 3 Specialist Immigration (Highest Level of Immigration Practice in England & Wales) Advisers by the Office of the Immigration Service Commission (OISC) United Kingdom
- 2000 Certificate in Business Management at Refugee Training Association (RETAS), World University Service
- 1997 Small Bursary Award at Warwick University
- 1996 Educational Award by African Education Trust London
- 1996 Educational Award by the Times Newspaper London
- 1990 Scholarship Award by the French Embassy Nairobi to study French (University of Burundi)

PUBLICATIONS

On request

RESEARCH INTERESTS

The Law of Globalization and Multi-National Corporation Torts, Comparative Immigration & Nationality Laws, Personal Injury, Criminal, Medical Malpractice, Environmental Torts, Comparative Family Law, Comparative Administrative & Constitutional Law, Commercial Law, Comparative Law (General) Conflict of Law, International Trade, The Human Rights of the Dead (The effect of law on body, organ tissue transplant), Conflict and Dispute Resolution, Pre-emptory Law, Air and Maritime Law.

PRESENTATIONS

Guest Speaker. “The Postcolonial Heritage, Indigenous and Colonial Law in Contemporary Africa” California State University, Fullerton, October 5, 2006.

Guest Speaker of Hon. Judge John F. Gossart's¹ Immigration Law seminar at the University of Baltimore School of Law on April 13th 2006. "The Effect of The European Community Immigration Law and The 1998 Human Rights Act" in the United Kingdom. Hon. Judge Gossart and Hon. Walter Mondale (Former U.S. vice-President) studied law at Baltimore law school.

Guest Speaker: "The effect and the aftermath of the Bhopal Litigation in India" Baltimore Guild Lawyers Association, Baltimore School of Law, March 28th 2006.

Represented Warwick University Law School in a U.K. Post-Graduate Law Schools competition at the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies in London, "The Tangible and the Intangible Rights of the Dead as Human Rights"

Organized the Human Rights Conference on Kenya to question Human and Economic Rights abuse by the Moi regime at London University's School of Oriental & African Studies (SOAS) 1997. Hon. Dennis Akumu was the guest speaker.

Organized the Human Rights Abuse Conference in tandem with Waswahili Refugee Welfare Organization at SOAS (1997) on Kenya. Hon. Koigi wa Wamwere, Dr. Richard Leakey, Bwamtum Swaleh, Msalam were key speakers

Made representations to Tony Blair, the British Prime Minister, Jacques Chirac, the President of France, Chancellor Helmut Kohl Former Chancellor of Germany and other EU heads of government to highlight human rights and economic abuse of the totalitarian regime in Kenya.

Organized and facilitated a human rights Award to His Excellency the President Hon. Mwai Kibaki at the Blair House in Washington D.C. by the Global Youth Organization.

Organized Kenya Forum for Reconstruction and Organization in Washington D.C. (Kefro).

CONSULTING

Consultant (Immigration & ECHR) in England & Wales
Carried Legal Research and Litigation before Immigration Tribunals and Arbitration

¹ Hon. John F. Gossart is Chief Immigration Judge at the U.S. Immigration Court in Baltimore and Adjunct Professor of Immigration Law at University of Baltimore School of Law.

Advocacy and case referrals to specialized solicitors and barristers
Conducted Immigration & Nationality Asylum interviews and representations at the Home Office, immigration ports of entries.
Provided legal advice for immigration detainees at various immigration detention centres and police stations
Conducted and advised ethnic minorities on their rights and Race Relations Act 1976 and the European Community Human Rights Act 2000.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIPS

International Lawyers Association British Branch
The Royal African Society
Institute of Commonwealth Studies, London
African Caribbean Association of Lawyers (ACA) in the United Kingdom
Law Society of England & Wales
Member of the Honourable Society of Gray's Inn, London
American Bar Association

References on request.